

Diana Torossian

Diana Torossian is a music industry veteran who has been responsible for discovering, developing and managing some of the country's biggest artists and songwriters.

From her days at EMI Music Publishing Australia, when Diana was responsible for signings such as Baby Animals, Diesel and Hoodoo Gurus, through time at Mushroom Music Publishing, Sony Music Australia and Polygram Music Publishing Australia, Peter Hoyland Management all the way to being Manager of A&R at BMG Music Publishing Australia, involved in signing the likes of Powderfinger, Rogue Traders, The Androids, The Grates, Adam Reily, Phil Buckle, and David Campbell.

After leaving BMG, Diana decided it was time to make use of all her contacts and knowledge as an independent player in the scene, starting out by creating writing schedules and sourcing songs for artists including the debut album for Jessica Mauboy. This led into setting up her own management company to specialise in looking after writers and producers only – Diana manages David Musumeci and Anthony Egizii who are DNA, the most prolific and successful songwriters in the country with sales over 8 million units, seven #1s and twenty Top 10 chart appearances with hits for The Veronicas, Nathaniel, Samantha Jade, Dami Im, Jessica Mauboy, Delta Goodrem and many more.

Having managed the likes of Sarah Aarons and Lindsay Rimes, Diana continues to manage DNA eleven years on, along with LA-based Wunderkind, Michael Fatkin and Melbourne-based writer/producer, Andrew Lowden.
